

ALL-STAR TEAM LIKELY TO PLAY THREE GAMES IN SOUTH

NATIONAL TOURNEY WILL RIVAL A. B. C.

Younger Association's Meet at Buffalo to Eclipse
Former Conclave.

By "KING PIN."

Judging from the posters received at the various local alleys, announcing the annual tournament of the National Bowling Association, that organization is determined not only to eclipse all its own former meets, but also to equal if not surpass the record of its Western rival, the American Bowling Congress.

The latter is the older body, but its offspring, the N. B. A., has developed rapidly, and as the meet will this year be held in Buffalo, a point convenient to all the Eastern bowlers, the Western tourney will have to be a sizzler to have anything of the N. B. A. entrance list.

As in the St. Louis tourney, $25,000 is hung up in prizes in the three events, which indicates the expectation of a record breaking entry list for the Eastern organization.

The tournament starts February 23 and closes March 11. It will be held in the Broadway Convention Hall at Buffalo. The entries close February 14.

There will be eighteen standard alleys, six of which will be used for special match games, and the alleys will be in full swing on Sundays. There will also be daily entertainment for the bowlers and their families.

The biggest feature of the tournament will be a great match series for $1,000 between two crack five-men teams representing the West and the East.

Another big feature is a tournament which will be specially arranged for the lady experts.

As Buffalo is only twenty-two miles from Niagara Falls and the famous Ice Bridge many bowlers will doubtless be attracted to the Bison City who might otherwise have been content to shoot 'em down the alleys in their home "burge."

Washington will have three teams entered in the St. Louis tournament, the Fat Men, Bureau, and Chamber of Commerce, but it is expected that a much larger delegation will represent the Capital City at Buffalo.

Leever, the Inventor.

PITTSBURGH, Dec. 25.—Sam Leever, the veteran pitcher of the Pirates, has entered the airship business and is arranging for the formation of a company to put on the market an airship on new lines. He has invented an air craft at his home at Goshen, Ohio.

FISH'S HARVARD LAW ELEVEN MAY PLAY NOTRE DAME TEAM

Three Games Are to Be Scheduled for All-Stars
Instead of One.

PLAN BANQUETS FOR THE PLAYERS

Sewanee and Vanderbilt Contests
Take Place on Consecutive Days.

BOSTON, Dec. 24.—As things now stand the Harvard law school football team will play three games instead of two on its Southern trip during the Christmas recess.

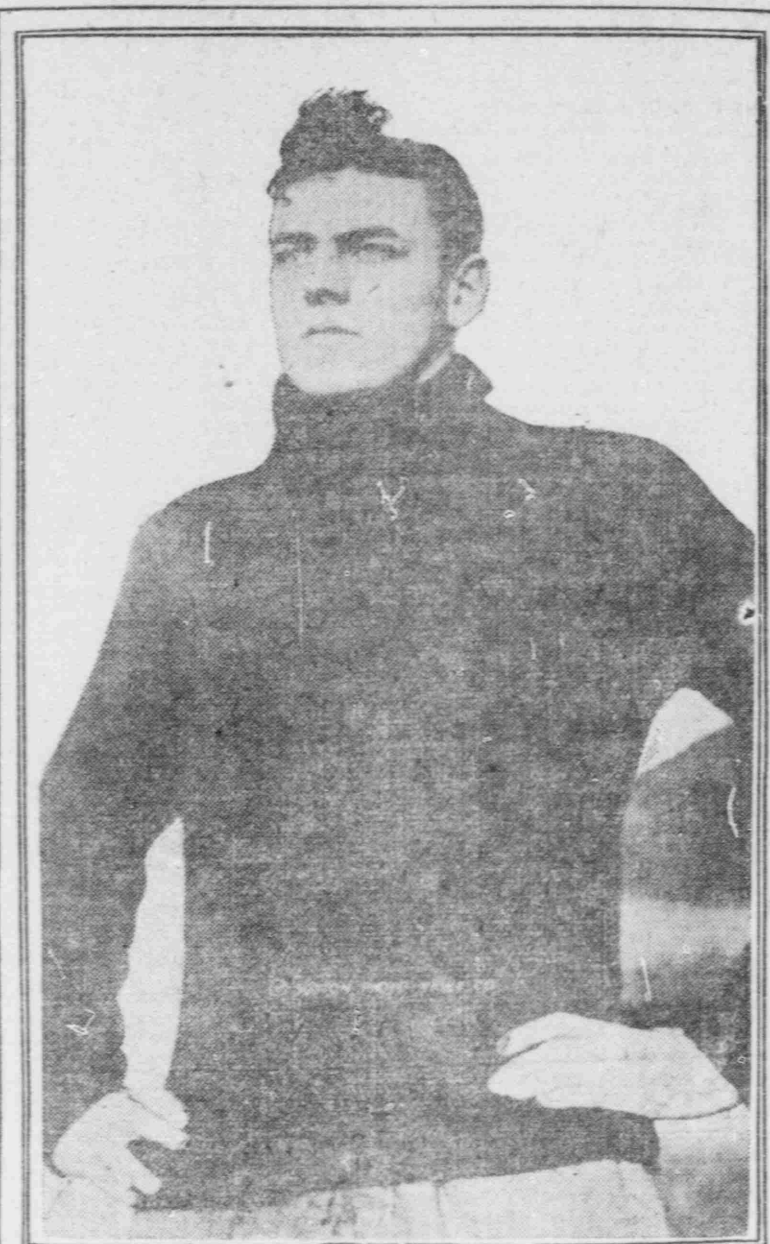

There will be a game with Sewanee, one with Vanderbilt, and one either with Louisiana University, at Baton Rouge, or with Notre Dame University, at St. Louis.

The Sewanee game will be played next Wednesday at Memphis, while the game with Vanderbilt is scheduled for the following day at Nashville. The Harvard men will go to Cincinnati via New York and will be entertained in the Ohio city by the local Harvard club before proceeding to Memphis. They will return to Cambridge before college reopens.

Giants Sign Outfielder.

NEW YORK, Dec. 25.—The New York National League club officials have received the signed contract of Outfielder Forsythe, drafted from the Pekin, Ill., club of the Illinois-Missouri League. He led that league in batting last season with an average of .381. Wilbur Roach, substitute infielder, has signed with the New York Americans. He is wintering in Windber, Pa.

NELSON UNWORTHY, DECLARES WOLGAST

Champion Lightweight Says
He Will Fight "Battler" to Show Him Up.

CADILLAC, Mich., Dec. 25.—Ad Wolgast has this to say about a match with Battler Nelson: "If there is any club that will give me a large enough purse to fight Nelson, I will be only too glad to take him on. I am sure Nelson is ringing a big bluff when he says he will meet me under my own terms. I don't ask to dictate to any boxer, like Nelson has in the past, and if a club will come forward for a Wolgast-Nelson fight like they did for the Nelson-Wolgast battle I will give the Dane an equal chance for choosing some of the privileges."

"Nelson at the present time is not worthy of me. He is down and out, but at that I will fight him for what a champion ought to get. I am in a position to talk now. If I can land two or three good fights I will throw up my proposed theatrical tour and go to the mountains to commence training."

"There will be no fight before April or May. That is the latest. But if physicians say my arm is in condition I will be ready to start sooner."

"I am sure the public would rather see me meet Moran than Nelson, but there is nothing in the world that would suit me better than to box Nelson again and show him up."

Jack O'Brien to Open Largest Boxing Club

BOSTON, Dec. 25.—Philadelphia Jack O'Brien, the middleweight boxer, known in private life as Joseph H. Hagen, real estate operator, will shortly open the largest boxing club in the East.

The new club is situated at the corner of Thirty-ninth and Market streets, Philadelphia, and will have a seating capacity of 650. It is the intention of the promoters to have a private membership, so that no matter what public exhibitions are given in the way of sports the membership tickets will hold good for admission.

Neary Is Returned.

BOSTON, Dec. 25.—Jim Neary will train the Boston Nationals again next season. This will be Neary's third straight season. Manager Fred Tenney had several applicants to consider for the place, but could not overlook the complimentary things that the players had to say for the North End athlete.

STOVAL'S PHYSIQUE FINEST IN LEAGUE

Cleveland Player Is Best
Built Man in American Organization.

CLEVELAND, Dec. 25.—George Stovall is the best built Naps, and probably the most nearly perfect physical man in the American League, according to Doc Schneider, team trainer last season. Ty Cobb is well built, but is a little too thin.

"Stovall is built in proportion to his height and is all muscle," said Schneider. "Larry is a fine physical specimen, but a little large around the waist."

"Jack Graney looks powerful, but is developed only on the left side. Jack's left arm is a good deal like that of a blacksmith. His right arm is about half an inch smaller in circumference."

"Harry Niles is short, but one of the most powerful men in the league. He is especially well developed in the lower limbs. He is too broad for his height. Ted Easterly has unusually broad shoulders, but is thin chested."

"The best throwers are the players with well developed shoulder muscles. Big, hard biceps do not aid in throwing. Joe Birmingham's arm is soft."

Johnson Liberal Man With His Relatives

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Dec. 25.—Jack Johnson, heavyweight champion, doesn't forget relatives in his hour of triumph and prosperity.

As far removed as second cousinship seems to entitle kin of the prize fighter to substantial remembrance, judging from the token gratefully received by Mrs. Elizabeth Johnson, of 5 Angie street, this city, a second cousin.

Today came a check for $500 from the ring general, with his compliments of the season, and a letter announcing that he hoped to call on her a few days after New Year. She has no further information as to his plans in coming here, but says she will be glad to extend her congratulations in person.

Roller to Be Dined.

BOSTON, Mass., Dec. 25.—Dr. B. F. Roller, the big wrestler, will be the guest of honor at a banquet to be held tomorrow night immediately after his match with George Hackenschmidt in Mechanics' building. The plans are not yet complete, but are in the hands of a number of sportsmen and physicians who wish to pay their respects to the doctor-wrestler.

BARROW HAS IDEAS HOW TO RUN LEAGUE

New President of Eastern
Circuit to Back Up Umpires With Fines.

New York, Dec. 25.—Edward G. Barrow, the new president of the Eastern League, has his own ideas about conducting business.

He is a man of iron will and plenty of nerve, and will not stand for dictation.

"I shall try no experiments in making up my staff of umpires," said Barrow today, "and when I've made my selection I intend to back them up to the limit. I shall, of course, entertain protests of club owners and managers against umpires, but I will be the sole judge as to whether the officials are incompetent or not."

"I intend to deal harshly with chronic kickers, and will insist upon clean baseball. In short, I intend to be president of the Eastern League, in fact as well as in name, and will rule its affairs with absolute power, having no fear of the consequences."

President Barrow has opened new headquarters in the St. James building.

Chicago Building Rule Blow to New League

CHICAGO, Dec. 25.—The project of a third major baseball league for Chicago would be seriously affected by an ordinance passed by the city council last Monday, designed to insure the safety of baseball crowds.

The ordinance passed almost unnoticed, but was brought into prominence by the stockyards fire Thursday, in which Fire Marshal Hoan and twenty-three others were killed.

The amended section of the building ordinance forbids the erection within the fire limits of any wooden grandstand or bleachers with a seating capacity of more than 5,000.

Wooden grandstands already in existence under construction may be repaired or enlarged, providing no part of the structure shall be within fifty feet of any other structure.

Bucknell Elects Captain.

LEWISBURG, Pa., Dec. 25.—At a meeting of the members of the Bucknell football eleven who won their B's this year, E. A. Snyder, the star center, was unanimously elected captain of next year's team. Snyder has played center for three years in high-class fashion.
